Cobalt Strike 2.0 The Cobalt Strike team appreciates the continued interest in the core 0.9.1 release and is now thrilled to announce that a new major release of Cobalt Strike is available! Besides the usual new features (a new C2 domain, new payloads, more functions, new commands, etc), Cobalt Strike 2.0 does not come with the "core patch" installers. This has been pushed back due to the issues that the core patch installer presented. A major issue was preventing adware from being installed on Windows 7 and Windows 8 devices. Another issue was that the previous installation process on Windows 10 prevented Windows Update from being able to install updates. Because of this, the installation for Cobalt Strike 2.0 is under a new installer. Simply download the installer and run it.

Cobalt Strike 2.0 will completely replace Cobalt Strike 0.9.1 (it will find and replace it with no problems). If you require assistance installing or updating, please contact our Help Desk at help@cobaltstrike
